THE OLD WEST (AS IT NEVER WAS) IS COMIN' ALIVE

WHAT WITH the Springville-Sierra rodeo coming up April 19-20, and the infamous Jackass Mail April 12, the old west, as it never was, is taking shape along the Emigrant trail, and hard-working (?) ex-wagonmasters of the Mail run are, as usual, in a state of confused confusion concerning the naming of a 1975 wagonmaster - from left: Unidentified shoes, Walt Pratt, Ron Peyron, Gene "Doc Small" Duncan, Hoss Hammond, and Wild Bill Ellsworth, allegedly at a Mountain Lion saloon meeting. At left is "Jackass Postmaster" Dick Coon setting up an official Jackass Mail posting box at Springville hardware in Springville. Editorial Comment

I DON'T LIKE IT!

Time was, when a lad was I, when a dime for a week could gladden the eye.

It got me to the movie.

Now the boy is long since grown. Life isn't an afternoon of movies.

Over the years of growing up things have gotten more complicated. There's food to buy and housing to provide, children to clothe and all the other things that grownups are supposed to do.

One of the things that grownups are supposed to do is being done just as badly as when I was a tyke. That's govern.

Government is a disaster.

Cities and counties are broke and crying to the states and the federal government for help.

The states are broke and crying to the federal government for help.

The federal government is in such lousy shape this year's budget deficit is estimated at $59 billion dollars, give or take $20 billion.

The problem with all of this nonsense is that there isn't a governmental entity in the world that has a red cent. Every penny comes out of the pockets of the citizens who have elected (in this country) someone to govern them.

I think that government is sloppy, slovenly and that the people in it by and large are not governing with the people's interest in mind. My parents didn't like the depression. I don't like inflation, recession or any of the new terms for fiscal mismanagement.

It is about time that government should be given an allowance and made to live within it. If that means cancelling movies or some other luxury that's too bad. The average people have cancelled too much already.

VISALIA — Nearly 200 4-H members, including two young men, are entered in the 1975 Tulare County Fashion revue which will be held Saturday, March 15 at the Tulare County fairgrounds, according to Shirley Kirkpatrick, 4-H Youth Assistant, University of California, Cooperative Extension.

In the novice and junior division, up to three champions will be chosen as county winners in each grade.

The three top contenders in the Senior division will represent Tulare county in state competition on the University of California Santa Barbara campus in August.

Last year's county representatives were Missy Hoskins, Lindsay; Rebecca Fuller, Prairie Center; and Julie Swartzlander, Ducor.

The event is being planned and hosted by Tulare area club leaders, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Barbara Westbrook and Mary Jo Deatherage, Pixley.

We Only Heard By BILL RODGERS

SOMETIMES WE are appalled by our own stupidity, like not being able to comprehend the need for a deputy city manager in Porterville's city hierarchy, plus another planner on the city staff... And new paneling, no less, to fancy up the new deputy's office... But, like we said, our stupidity appalls us.

SCHOOL BOARD candidates endorsed by the Candidate Screening Committee of AFT/CFT Local 2301 did consistently well in the recent election. All three lost.

MUNICIPAL BALLPARK, what with new fencing, new paint, new metal seat covers, remodelled raised dugouts, a worked-over infield, and improved areas at the ends of the grandstand, looks sharper than it has in years.

NOW THAT California National Guard officials have rejected a proposition from the Veterans' Memorial District and the City of Porterville to trade the Porterville armory for the Memorial district building in Poplar, it behooves the city to come up without delay on a policy statement concerning development of the armory-ballpark-fair grounds area. And at this point we again state our opposition to the expenditure of Memorial district funds, or any other general tax money, to provide a meeting place for exclusive use of veterans.

TODD COTTON, Pioneer Junior High school eighth grader and son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cotton, has been selected as Outstanding Honor Bandsman of the Year as a result of his performance at the recent Tulare-Kings County Fine Arts festival in Tulare. His award includes a paid scholarship at the La Sierra Summer Music camp in August, the scholarship given annually by the Tulare-Kings County Music Educators association. Cotton has been first clarinet in the Pioneer Junior High band. The music camp at La Sierra will include private and group lessons from top music educators and professional musicians. Other outstanding young California musicians from various parts of the state will also attend the camp.

UPPMAN CONCERT

Theodor Uppman, a baritone with the Metropolitan Opera association, will appear in concert Saturday, March 15, in the Porterville Memorial auditorium as the third attraction of the Porterville Community Concert association's current season. Curtain time is 8 p.m.; admission is by association membership card.

On the way to Pismo, we went thru San Luis Obispo, and came to a screaming halt when we saw SAM MILLER. It was nice to see a familiar face and between selling lots of oranges, we got to talk to him. It was a cold, rainy day, and SAM had gotten tired of watching game shows on the T.V. at the motel, and all the housewives were glad to see him and buy his beautiful oranges.

The American Legion is having its annual Americanism Essay Contest. PATTI OSTRANDER is in charge, and she asked me to be one of the readers of the essays. It is quite a job to be in charge of this contest. So many rules to follow, and so much organization. PATTI brought me twenty essays to read, and I am so impressed. The theme this year is "America's Heritage, My Responsibility," and the essays I've read are wonderful. I am so happy to find there are so many great young people in this mixed up world. The penmanship, the spelling and the obvious planning of their thoughts make the essays great reading. The readers are not judges. We just read, and pick out a certain number for the wheels to read and judge. There are no names on the papers, and we don't know if they are boys or girls, but each youngster had his own ideas as to his responsibility to our great country. Many essays bemoan the fact, that we have lost confidence in our government, and they have interesting ideas on how to help. The racial problems are thought out in some papers, and if we could only follow their ideas, it would all be so easy. There is so much adverse criticism now-a-days, it is a relief to read something constructive. I wonder if the paper I liked the best will win. I hope so. I wish I could write as well as the author.

We were standing on the pier in Pismo watching a man digging for clams. He was about three feet off the dry sand, and the tide was almost to the wall. He had a nice yellow bucket ready for the clams. He had his shoes on, so when a little wave came up to his feet he had to jump back. He knew how to hold the rake, and he poked around for hours, digging up beer bottles and cans. He would be so excited, when his rake hit something, and dig like mad, and we felt sorry for him. No one bothered to tell him that the tide had to be hundreds of yards out, and waves around your waist were more likely. As I remember, waves over your head was the common predicament. One man came dragging back up the beach. He had all the equipment, but no clams in the bag around his waist. He told the game warden that he didn't find any big clams, so he just ate the little clams after washing them off in sea water. I don't know what his fine was, but I can imagine.

Happiness is being part of OUR TOWN.
